Posters include information regarding how to report fraud, waste, and abuse including submitting anonymous reports; the posters also include information that the report and their identity are kept confidential.

J. Monitoring and Auditing

42 CFR 438.608(a)(1)(vii)

- 1. Magellan has established and implemented procedures and a system for routine internal monitoring and auditing of compliance risks, prompt response to compliance issues as they are raised, investigation of potential compliance problems as identified in the course of self-evaluation and audits, correction of such problems promptly and thoroughly (or coordination of suspected criminal acts with law enforcement agencies) to reduce the potential for recurrence, and ongoing compliance with the requirements under the contract.
- 2. The foundation for monitoring and auditing is Magellan's SIU. The SIU is responsible for protecting the assets of Magellan and its clients by detecting, identifying, and deterring fraud, waste, and abuse.
 - a) Magellan uses the Perspective Case Management System from PPM 2000, Inc. to capture and track investigations. Procedures for investigation, documentation, evidence handling, and reporting exist to guide investigators in creating an accurate work product.
 - b) The SIU works closely with other departments to adjudicate investigative findings including Provider Networks, Legal, Cost Containment, and other departments as needed.
 - c) Magellan is a corporate member of the National Health Care Anti-Fraud Association (NHCAA). Magellan maximizes quality referrals of fraud, waste, and abuse by utilizing the resources available in the NHCAA Special Investigations Resource and Information System (SIRIS), Requests for Investigation Assistance (RIAs) from Law Enforcement, distribution of published news articles, and other information sharing initiatives.
- 3. Magellan also has internal controls related to claims processing. Our claims processors are assessed and tested each year by the Company's Internal Audit Department as part of the annual Sarbanes Oxley compliance. Areas covered include provider credentialing and rate loading, claims receipt, adjudication and payment, enrollment and benefit loading, and information systems. The claim processing systems used by Magellan have extensive controls that limit individuals' access to specific functions as well as ensuring processing based on contracts, legislation, etc.
 - a) Magellan's Claims system also has edits that deny claims for items such as duplicate claim, unknown service, unknown member, member ineligible to receive service, improper coding, and provider not eligible to provide service.

During post-processing review of claims, Magellan produces reports that show overlapping dates of service to determine if any claims have been submitted and were adjudicated for services that did not fail the claim edit logic.

- b) To prevent improper payments when incorrect code combinations are reported, Magellan implemented the National Correct Coding Initiative (NCCI) edits) as part of its claims pre-payment review process. The customer delegation agreement and the product type (NIA, BH, Magellan Rx Pharmacy) are used to determine which of the claim edits should be applied to the benefit plan.
 - c) NCCI edits are used during the pre-payment claims review to evaluate billing of CPT codes and Healthcare Common Procedure Coding System (HCPCS) codes listed on claims submitted by Medicaid providers. These edits are intended to reduce coding errors because of clerical mistakes or fraud, and incorrect use of codes or their units of service.
 - d) The use of NCCI edits would also decrease the number of overpayments and fraud, waste and abuse. Reports are generated and reviewed on a weekly basis by the Claims Department. A list of all claims that were denied for NCCI edits during the claims pre-payment review process in the prior month are sent to the SIU. The SIU is responsible for analyzing the claims data and for selecting the providers with a high volume of denials or other patterns for further review. Based on the results of this analysis, this may or may not result in a full investigation.
4. In addition to the claims system edits described above, to the extent delegated, Magellan also conducts the following audits listed below as part of its fraud, waste, and abuse detection, prevention, and monitoring tools. The customer delegation agreement and the product type (NIA, BH, Magellan Rx Pharmacy) are used to determine which of the audits described below should be applied to the benefit plan.
- a) Provider Chart Audits & On-site Reviews
 - To monitor provider billing practices, a selection of charts may be audited for compliance with clinical treatment record review standards and also against corresponding claims paid reports. If findings from a claims audit indicate that there are potential fraud and/or quality of care concerns, the clinical reviewer notifies the LCO for the CMC. The LCO completes a Special Investigations Unit (SIU) referral form and sends the completed form to SIU via interoffice mail. Furthermore, the LCO is responsible for notifying the customer in compliance with Magellan's contractual obligations.
 - b) Post Pay Audits
 - Magellan audits a minimum of 2% of completed claims for each account. This includes manually processed and auto-adjudicated claims. A daily-automated report of finalized claims is utilized for this 2% random audit sample selection process. The random sample size is based upon 2% of the Claim Processors finalized claims. Selecting a sample size at the Claim Processor level ensures that Magellan is selecting enough claim audits at the Group level in order to satisfy contractual obligations.
 - c) Pre-pay High Dollar Audits
 - In addition to post pay audits, pre-pay audits are conducted on all high dollar claims. For this purpose, high dollar claims are defined as those claims with a paid or denied amount of $5,000 or more. These claims will be audited and released by the auditor if there are no errors noted. If errors are noted the claim will be expedited to the supervisor of the individual for review, corrective action and release of the claim.

d) Trainee Audits

- All claims processed by trainees are audited. This ensures the trainee receives immediate audit feedback. While trainees are in class, the trainee is held to a maximum of fifty (50) claims production per day with focus on quality before targeting production. When errors are identified, the trainee should not continue to process new claims until the errors can be resolved. The trainee and trainer must review the audited claims and correct any errors. The trainer will ensure that all errors are corrected prior to release of payment or denial. At the end of class, each trainee will be assessed to determine his/her status before moving onto the unit. Trainee audits will gradually be reduced from 100% to the daily average of 2% audit based upon quality results and agreement upon by the unit supervisor and trainer.

e) Second Level Audit

- Magellan's auditing program includes a second level audit to validate the integrity audit methods and results. Magellan pulls a monthly sample of each Auditor's work and performs a second level audit of that claim to measure auditor accuracy and reliability. The goal of this process is to validate that the proper decision was made, that all Auditors would audit the claim the same way, and that any discrepancies should be surfaced for review and discussion. A secondary goal of the second level audit is to identify potential Auditor training and performance improvement opportunities and to address them in a timely fashion. Auditors are held accountable for errors identified through the rebuttal process. Claims reviewed for the second level audit process focus on those with no errors in order to provide a full spectrum of auditor performance.

f) Focused and Ad hoc Audits

- Magellan Quality Management will provide ad hoc and focused audits at the request of Claims Management staff or the Care Management Center. In addition, the auditing staff will work to provide trend and root-cause analysis based on findings and reports via the database. It is also the responsibility of Claims Management to assess the errors identified through routine and external audits and to request ad hoc analysis of specific problems.

g) Cost Containment Department (CCD) Audits

- i. The CCD performs standard audits over the claims systems on a monthly basis to identify opportunities for recoveries.
- ii. Standard reports include (but are not limited to) duplicate claims payment, terminated members, and claims with COB.
- iii. Magellan's Recovery Unit (a section of the CCD) responds to overpayment leads identified through various methods and/or departments including but not limited to, claims and resolution units, contracts & rates department, legal, internal audits, SIU and various reports. Magellan pursues recovery of overpayment for identified core risks, with exceptions based on contractual and/or regulatory requirements. Overpayments are reported pursuant to the Medicaid contractual obligations.

5. Magellan's prior authorization system will determine if a covered service requires prior authorization, and if there is a prior authorization in the system for the service in question. During Utilization/Quality Management, Magellan monitors over/under utilization for covered services.

K. Responding to Detected Offenses, Developing Corrective Action Initiatives and Reporting to Government Authorities

42 CFR 438.608(a)(1)(vii)

42 CFR 438.608(a)(7)

1. Magellan has established and implemented procedures and a system for prompt response to compliance issues as they are raised, investigation of potential compliance problems as identified in the course of self-evaluation and audits, correction of such problems promptly and thoroughly (or coordination of suspected criminal acts with law enforcement agencies) to reduce the potential for recurrence, and ongoing compliance with the requirements under the contract.
2. Magellan cooperates with law enforcement authorities in the prosecution of health care and insurance fraud cases and reports fraud related data as specified by Federal and State laws and regulations and self-reports to the State Departments of Insurance, State Agencies, and Federal Agencies as may be required by law and/or customer contract.
3. Magellan self-reports to the State Department of Insurance, and other state and federal agencies as may be required by law and/or contract.
4. The SIU is responsible for ensuring Magellan's compliance with all Federal and State laws and regulations that apply to the reporting of fraud, waste and abuse. The LCO is responsible for ensuring Magellan's compliance with the customer contract requirement that applies to the reporting of fraud, waste, and abuse and overpayment.
5. Magellan supports and utilizes the services of the National Health Care Anti-Fraud Association.
6. The Magellan SIU refers cases as follows:
 - a) Customer cases are referred to the plan sponsor where appropriate, for their review and possible action. We advise them that we may be required to report our findings to the appropriate agency;
 - b) Health care provider case information is submitted to the appropriate law enforcement and/or administrative agency, including the appropriate state licensing board;
 - c) The prosecution of individuals who present fraudulent insurance claims is a strong deterrent to future fraudulent claims. Referral directly to law enforcement agencies may be instituted by the Magellan SIU if:
 - i. A state insurance fraud bureau or other agency (e.g., State Attorney General) has been designated by law to investigate suspected/fraudulent insurance claims;
 - ii. A law enforcement agency has directly subpoenaed the claim file and requests information directly from the Magellan SIU;
 - iii. A state law allows for law enforcement to directly request, with proper identification, copies of the claim file and Magellan SIU information regarding a suspect claim; or
 - iv. Other situations arise which may require direct referral of a suspect or fraudulent claim to law enforcement agencies. If those situations are outside of the normal established procedures for referral as outlined above, then prior approval from the Magellan SIU management or their Legal Counsel must be obtained.

- L. Specific Company procedures do not allow, without prior approval of the CCO, the following situations:
 1. Participation in law enforcement operations (e.g., sting operations); or
 2. Lawsuits initiated on Magellan's behalf where damages are being sought from an insured or third party claimant.
- M. Disciplinary Action
 1. Disciplinary action is taken against employees who authorize or participate directly in a violation of applicable state or federal law, the Code of Conduct, standards of conduct, or policies and procedures, and any employee who may have deliberately failed to report such a violation, or who hinders an investigation by destroying evidence or by misrepresentation.
 2. Magellan conducts appropriate discipline, including termination, of any employee who has deliberately withheld relevant and material information concerning a violation of applicable state and/or federal law, the Code of Conduct, the standards of conduct, or the applicable policies and procedures and takes appropriate actions to prevent reoccurrence.
- N. Corrective Action Plans are developed and reviewed through the Local Compliance Committee as described in Standard II.F.4.c.iv., on page 9 in this policy.
- O. Whistleblower Protection and Non-Retaliation Policy 42 CFR 438.608(a)(6)
 1. Magellan prohibits retaliation or intimidation against any employee who, in good faith, reports an ethical or legal concern, even if investigation of the concern does not result in a confirmed violation. Magellan believes non-retaliation for good faith reporting encourages internal reporting of potential violations, allows Magellan to enforce the appropriate disciplinary action for confirmed violations, and enables Magellan to proactively implement business policies, processes, and training that prevent reoccurrence.
 2. Magellan complies with all state and federal requirements for government-sponsored programs, including the Federal False Claims Act, the Deficit Reduction Act of 2005, the American Recovery, and Reinvestment Act of 2009, applicable Whistleblower Protection laws, and any state false claims statutes. To the extent permitted by law, Magellan protects the identity of individuals, who report in good faith alleged acts of fraud, waste, abuse, and overpayments.
 3. Magellan does not retaliate against an employee for reporting or bringing a civil suit for a possible False Claims Act violation. Magellan does not discriminate against an employee in the terms or conditions of his or her employment because the employee initiated or otherwise assisted in a False Claims Act action.
 4. Magellan does not retaliate against any of its employees, agents and contractors for lawful acts done by the employee, contractor, agent or associated others in furtherance of an action under the False Claims Act or other efforts to stop one (1) or more violations of the False Claims Act, or for reporting suspected cases of fraud, waste, or abuse to us, the federal government, state government, or any other regulatory agency with oversight authority.

5. Federal and state law also prohibits Magellan from discriminating against agents and contractors because the agent or contractor initiated or otherwise assisted in a False Claims Act action.
6. Additional information regarding whistleblower protection is available in the False Claims Laws and Whistleblower Protections Policy and the state false claims grid available online at: <http://www.magellanhealth.com/mh/about/compliance/dra.aspx>.

III. Magellan’s Medicaid Program Integrity Plan

A. Magellan’s Program Integrity Plan outlines Magellan’s procedures and policies for implementing and maintaining arrangements or procedures that are designed to detect and prevent fraud, waste, abuse and overpayments in compliance with 42 CFR 438.608(a) including the following:

1. A Compliance Program; 42 CFR 438.608(a)(1)
 - Please see Standard II., above which starts on page 4 for a detailed description of Magellan’s Compliance Program.

2. Policies and procedures for handling Overpayments (42 CFR 438.608(a)(2));

- a) Magellan reports to the State within sixty (60) calendar days when it has identified capitation payments or other payments in excess of amounts specified in the contract. Overpayments are reported and returned to the applicable regulatory agency specified in the Medicaid contract or to the Health Plan customer to forward to the applicable regulatory agency. The notice of overpayment also outlines the reason for the overpayment. The reporting time frame may be shorter if required by the customer contract. 42 CFR 438.608(c)(3)

42 CFR 438.608(a)(2)

- b) Magellan complies with the reporting time frame outlined in the Medicaid Contract to promptly (as specified in the contract) report all overpayments identified or recovered, and specifies the overpayments due to potential fraud, in the report to the State or health plan customer.

3. Procedures for reporting information that may impact an enrollee’s eligibility status;

42 CFR 438.608(a)(3)

- Magellan provides prompt notification to the State when it receives information about changes in an enrollee's circumstances that may affect the enrollee's eligibility including changes in the enrollee's residence; and the death of an enrollee.

5. Methods for verifying whether or not a member received the services Magellan paid for during the claims process; 42 CFR 438.608(a)(5)

- a) Verification of Services Provided to Members Audit - The purpose of this review is to determine and to verify whether services billed by providers were actually received by members. Magellan randomly selects paid claims for member service verification. On a quarterly basis, Magellan will send the “Member Service Verification” questionnaire to members that are selected from a random sample of paid claims. The criteria used in the selection process are described below:

- i. The Reporting Department selects claims for member verification on a quarterly basis; and
 - ii. The selected claims will be claims paid within the last thirty (30) calendar days excluding the following:
 - a. No-shows; and
 - b. Services defined as confidential by the applicable State Medicaid Agency.
 - b) Randomly select one hundred (100) members for member service verification. In order to avoid overly burdening members, once a member has been selected for one report, the member is excluded from selection in subsequent reports for the period of one (1) year.
 - c) Except for the services excluded under Standard III.A.5.a) i) a., above, the selected sample report lists up to five (5) paid services for each member within the thirty (30) day time period referenced above.
 - d) Magellan will review each copy of the questionnaire that is returned by the member and results are recorded in the Member Service Verification Log (MSVL). If a member indicates that he or she never received the services outlined in the questionnaire, the LCO will contact the member to verify the member understands the procedure billed. If the member still indicates the service was not received, the CMC will forward those cases to the Special Investigations Unit (SIU), and will comply with the applicable Medicaid Contract reporting requirements.
